1982 Parade of Lights

WORKING TOGETHER — The Cutner/Stewart family combined their talents to design a Nativity theme for their entry in the Parade of Lights. Here Toni and her dad, Gary Stewart, former parade award winners, add the lights to brighten up the mast.

LAST MINUTE MARVELING — Susanna Hugelshofer and her daughter Nicole, gave some last minute touches to their festive vessel during the Fifth Annual Parade of Lights on December 11 and 12.

Lake Mission Viejo tradition shines

The 1983 Parade of Lights enlisted the Christmas spirit of the owners of 24 boats as it brilliantly embellished the Mission Viejo community's holiday season for the fifth consecutive year.

Co-sponsored by the Lake Mission Viejo Yacht Club and the Mission Viejo Activities Committee, the glittering event offered a blazing bonfire, Christmas caroling, and yuletide yummys.

Among those LMV members illuminating the lake surface and winning awards were:

The Faust family, lighting up ET and the hot air balloon, placing first in single boats for the fifth year.

The Austin family, placing second with the "Snowflake."

The three family effort of the West's, Riley's and Crocker's placed first in the party boat entrees. While the Greere and Wagner families placed second.

Honorable mention was earned by David Brandt, the Saul family and the Hebit family.
